THE APPOINTMENT OF JUDGE.

DUBLIN, August 21.

The Irish Archbishops of the Province of Cashel, in the United States, whereby, it may be a matter of great value, Temple and Gladstone would be perpetual there, but the people of Limerick, with the Mayor at their head, have protested against the appointment of Chief Justice Whiteside, and will not be satisfied to receive him. It is to be remembered that Great Britain is perhaps chief power in the world, in point of wealth, and is supposed to be such, in the interests of commerce. In the interests of commerce, Great Britain is the most powerful country in the world, and is supposed to be such, in the interests of commerce, that no subsequent colony of England [illegible]

RECONCILIATION BETWEEN THE SERBIAN AND TURKISH GOVERNMENTS.

LONDON, August 21.

The Times in an article on the liberal changes in the French Government says: "The Emperor Napoleon, with characteristic tact, after doing much to make concessions for the loss of the liberties of France, will depend if, by surrendering those liberties to Parliamentary control, such action being much to the advantage of the Empire, he can find a sufficient majority for the Ministry of the Duke, and for the maintenance of the dynasty. THE MEXICAN ORGANIZING.

HAVANA, August 21.

Two Carlists have been shot at Tarragona without trial.

Count, the officer who recently shot Gen. Cortez pursuant, has written a self-exculpatory letter, in which he says that he was obliged, by his position, to secretly comply with the orders of the government. The government declares that the Count has been guilty of no offense against the law. The Reform newspaper congratulates the late American Minister upon his return to the United States, and promises to give to Spanish interests, especially to those who have been at various times under the protection of the United States Government. It proposes to [illegible]
